The US Marshal is not authorized to serve American process in foreign countries since service of process must comply with the laws of the nation in which service is to be made. In addition, the US Marshal does not normally get involved with arranging service in cases involving private litigants.

The Office of International Judicial Assistance (OJJA) of U.S. Department of Justice Civil Division serves as the Central Authority for Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters. Their website is <https://www.justice.gov/civil/service-requests>. This website will provide information for litigants requesting service abroad of civil judicial documents.
